

Hidden Thunder: Rock Art of the Upper Midwest with Robert “Ernie” Boszhardt

Robert “Ernie” Boszhardt is an archaeologist who has worked in the Upper Mississippi Valley Area for nearly four decades. His work has touched upon nearly every aspect of archaeology in the Driftless Area.

Boszhardt will provide an illustrated program that features several Native American Rock Art sites from the new book:
“Hidden Thunder: Rock Art of the Upper Midwest” that he co-authored with artist Geri Schrab

Tuesday May 2, 7 PM

*Free and Open to the Public

Vernon County Museum
410 S. Center Ave

Copies of this Wisconsin Historical Society Press book will be available for purchase